To Whom It May Concern:

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of reference on behalf of Maldon Meehan. For over a decade, I have come to know Maldon through her many visits to Vancouver. She used to travel up from Portland with a group of dancers to attend an occasional Ceili; these dances were always extra lively due to the enthusiastic visitors. For the past several years, Maldon has given workshops to the Vancouver Irish Ceili Society and the Stove Dodger Set Dancers.

These events have both inspired and enriched many dancers here. Maldon is fantastically knowledgeable about Irish dancing and she is a skillful dancer; these assets along with her teaching ability combine to enable her to provide a top notch learning experience for her students. In addition, Maldon offers a variety of workshops; this makes it extra interesting each time she returns as the Vancouver dancers have a wide range of dancing focuses to choose from.

Maldon is a competent event organizer; she skillfully plans well ahead and her communication is timely and thorough; it is always a pleasure to co-coordinate the events with her. She has a warm personality and a friendly, personable demeanour. We look forward to her next trip to Vancouver.

I would highly recommend Maldon for any endeavour she is pursuing and I look forward to seeing what lays ahead for her future.
